

When the student organization provides proof of fund raising to the Dean, the funds they raised do NOT have to be earmarked for student travel. However, the matching funds that the Dean provides are intended to be used for student travel to national conferences, etc.